Description

Description

One of our most popular bags, the C Bag is a large capacity messenger bag ideal for everything from the daily commute to weekend escapes further afield. The main compartment, containing a suspended laptop holder, is joined by a large front pocket with a water-resistant zip and two improved rear pockets for easy access to a water bottle, your phone or any other essentials.

The C Bag is constructed from a durable, hard-wearing Cordura fabric and has a padded, quick-release shoulder strap that tucks away in a dedicated side pocket while you're riding. There's even an integrated high-visibility rain cover that has a wraparound reflective band, perfect for unexpected showers or just the odd night time ride.

Updated for 2016, the C Bag now comes in three finishes to complement both your Brompton and your own look: bold Lagoon Blue for maximum impact, subtle Berry Crush trim with matching zip pulls, or stealthy all-black for an elegant simplicity. Whether attached to your Brompton or taken with you about town, the C Bag really is a versatile and stylish all-rounder.

Why not finish the look with a matching saddle pouch?
